KLEIN'S VERSION.

The New York World's Samoan
Correspondent

GIVES HIS ACCOUNT OF THE LATE TROUBLES THERE.

He Shows That the Motive of the German Government is Clearly the Conquest of the Samoan Islands—German-Americans Will Stand By the Stars and Stripes
in Case of a War.

New York, Jan. 29.—The World prints a letter from Klein, its Samoan correspondent, in which he shows that the motive of the German government is clearly the conquest of the Samoan islands. He says: "Late in the afternoon of December 19 many rumors were circulated throughout Apia as to what the Germans intended doing in revenge for the killing of their men the day before. It was said that they intended throwing shells over Apia into the bush behind the town; that all Mataafa natives were to be shot wherever met, and that their houses were to be burned. The neutrality of the place, it was said, was not to be respected. It was also reported that the German consul had ordered all the wounded men who were being cared for in the native church near the American consulate to leave the sanctuary at once, as the German men-of-war were going to burn it with other native property. Consul Blacklock wrote a letter to Consul Knappe protesting against such action as last referred to, if the report was correct. Consul Knappe answered by denying that such action was contemplated.

"During the afternoon King Mataafa, who had taken up his position in the village of Magnani, near the Vailele German plantation, about two miles behind the town of Apia, received a letter from Consul Knappe, informing him that unless he came on board of one of the German men-of-war with his chiefs before 12 o'clock, noon, of the 20th, and gave up all the guns in the possession of his party, the German man-of-war would shell him in the bush. To this letter Mataafa made no reply.

"I visited the king in his camp late in the day. He told me that he deeply regretted that his army had been forced to take the lives of Germans, but they could have done nothing else, unless they would have been satisfied to be killed without making any resistance. He and his people, he said, had been goaded to desperation, and after having repeatedly stood the most cruel and unjust treatment without retaliating through a desire not to come into conflict with the Germans, yet the time had at last arrived when the Samoans intended to resist to the end. He hoped, he said, that the present difficulty would be settled without further loss of life on either side, but if the Germans attacked his party again he would not be responsible for the action of his people, and the result might be that every German in Samoa would be killed, and all German property, both inland and on the shore burned.

"The king added that he had taken the greatest possible pains to notify his people that under no circumstances must the lives or property of Americans and the English people be placed in danger.

"Consul Knappe attended a meeting of the consuls asked for by Consul Blacklock for the purpose of settling the war, if possible, Mataafa to be present; but the German consul would not consent to meet the king under any circumstances, and nothing was accomplished.

"Before dark a Gatling gun with 10,000 pounds of ammunition, was sent ashore from the Nisic, and the piece planted on the veranda of the American consulate building, where it could command the main road and part of the beach.

"On the morning of the 21st the following notice in the English, Samoan and German languages, was posted throughout Apia, along the main road:

"My opinion of the way by which Samoa will get happy again is as follows:

"The difficulties and misfortunes have arisen because there are so many firearms on the island. Therefore I order the warriors in Tandamandao and Matafagete to bring their arms to-day on board of the German man-of-war in the harbor of Matafagete. When a red flag will be hoisted on top of the foremast of the man-of-war this will be the sign that you have to bring your arms on board the man-of-war in your boats, which may hoist a white flag.

"When the arms will be delivered Samoa will live and prosper. But when one hour has passed after the red flag has been hoisted and you have not begun to bring the arms on board the man-of-war, the latter will fire into the village of Matafagete. I hope you will obey my orders. DR. KNAPPE, 'Imperial German Consul.'

"APIA, Dec. 21, 1888."

"Consul Blacklock had received a copy of Consul Knappe's letter early in the morning and replied with a protest in the name of the United States.

"Notwithstanding the protest of Consul Blacklock, the German man-of-war began firing on the village at 9:15 o'clock, it having been deserted on the previous day by Mataafa's men, and none of the Samoans having come on board for the purpose of giving up their arms, as ordered. Twenty-five shells were fired at the village and in the bush beyond, toward Mataafa's camp, but no one was injured.

"The American flag was fired upon as though there was no such flag in existence. Several boat loads of sailors were then landed, and two-thirds of the village burned, among them three houses belonging to Capt. Hamilton, an American citizen, as well as a house belonging to a British subject.

"Consul Knappe wrote to Consul Blacklock, asking him to meet with him and Consul Coetlogan, for the purpose of stopping the war, if possible. He also stated that he had heard that the Mataafa troops in Tuesday's fight had been under the command of an American, who had also been the first to fire upon the German troops.

"Consul Blacklock replied to the German consul's letter by saying that the latter could at any time have his co-operation in establishing good order in Samoa, but he certainly would not lend his aid in re-establishing Tamassee, contrary to the instructions of the United States government. Consul Blacklock added that he had investigated the rumors about the Mataafa men having been under the command of an American at the fight referred to, and also of this American having fired upon the German troops, and had discovered that the reports were utterly groundless.

"On the evening of December 21 a meeting of the three consuls and the captains of the American, English and German men-of-war was held at the British consulate for the purpose of deciding upon what should be considered the bounds of the neutral territory in Apia. Nothing could be agreed upon, however, the Germans demanding all sorts of concessions, but persistently refusing to grant any in return. The meeting adjourned until December 24, when another conference was held, lasting three or four hours, and with similar results. It was then decided to abandon further efforts to arrive at an understanding with the Germans.

"About the 1st of January the Germans began circulating a petition to their government, asking Germany to annex Samoa. This petition of course has been universally signed by the German residents, but an especial effort is being made to induce some of the foreign population to sign it also. Several Scandinavians who were approached refused to sign the document. Two or three English and American renegades, who have allied themselves with the Germans and Tamassee's party for purposes of gain, have signed the paper.

"The situation in Samoa to-day, January 5, at the hour of the closing of the mail for the United States, is as follows: The German men-of-war are tranquil, but it is not known at what minute of the day or night they may make some desperate move that may prove most disastrous to American and English lives and interests in Samoa. It is the universal opinion among English and American residents, and also among some Germans, that Dr. Knappe will be recalled by his government for the terrible blunders he has made during his short term of office, covering only six weeks.

"Tamassee's men are still in the vicinity of Lautanu, being kept back by Mataafa's men, who have built a strong fort at Latogo, near Lautanu, and which the rebels must pass in order to reach Apia, unless coming in by water. The larger part of Mataafa's army is encamped in the vicinity of the native village of Magagi. The forces of the king are awaiting for the Germans to make the first move."

The German-Americans.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The course of Bayard with reference to Samoa is likely to lead to the disruption of the cabinet. Whitney is chafing under the inactivity of his department through lack of an avowed policy by the state department. The publication of Whitney's correspondence has created considerable public sentiment in the matter, and puts Bayard on the defensive. A rumor is current here that either Whitney or Bayard will resign within the next few days, the report even going so far as to say that the resignation is already offered to the president.

While the truth of these rumors is unknown at present, the strained condition of affairs in the cabinet is undoubtedly the cause of their circulation, and developments for the next few days are watched with unusual interest.

Congressman Guenther, of Wisconsin, is the most prominent representative German-American in congress. He has no hesitation in declaring for the United States against Germany, all along, in war as well as in peace.

"There is going to be no war," says Guenther. "The two countries are too far apart to make a fight possible. No hostile shot will ever be exchanged in Samoan waters or elsewhere between men-of-war sent there by Bismarck and Uncle Sam. American citizens of German birth and German descent will work for our country in time of peace and fight for it in time of war, if a time of war should ever come. When I say our country, I mean, of course, our adopted country, the United States of America."

"After passing through the crucible of naturalization we are no longer Germans, we are Americans. Our attachment to America cannot be measured by the length of our residence here. We are Americans from the moment we touch the American shore until laid in American graves. We will fight for America whenever necessary; America first, last and at all times. America against Germany, America against the world; America right or wrong, always America. We are Americans."

Bismarck and Salisbury in Accord.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The significant feature of Bismarck's speech of Saturday was his declaration that Germany and Great Britain are in perfect accord in all colonial enterprises, both in Africa and Samoa.

The Times says the English are curious to know the value of Bismarck's assertion that Germany is absolutely one with England with England with regard to the Samoan difficulty. It is hard to believe that England will approve the deportation of King Malietoa or the intervention of Germany.

The Standard endorses the remarks of Bismarck. The Daily News, in view of Bismarck's speech on the African question, wants to know what is the price of Bismarck's friendship; and in regard to Samoa, what further sacrifice of National dignity England is to make.

Ford's Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Mr. Ford, of Michigan introduced in the house a resolution requesting the secretary of state to transmit to the house copies of all joint protocols and memoranda of the proceedings of the conference between the representatives of Germany, Great Britain and the United States in regard to Samoa referred to by Vice Consul Blacklock and in the president's message to congress touching Samoan affairs.

Death of C. A. Washburn.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—C. A. Washburn, ex-minister to Paraguay, and brother of Senator-elect Washburn, of Minnesota, died of apoplexy yesterday, aged sixty-seven.

A Woman To Be Hanged.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Barrow, who pleaded guilty of murdering her husband, has been sentenced by Judge Hare to be hanged.

MOORE'S CLERKS,

As Well as Himself, Were Getting in Their Work

ON THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE
COMPANY'S FUNDS.

For Years, It Is Said, They Have Been Engaged in Systematically Robbing the Company Without Leaving Any Trace of Their Depredations—The Bookkeeper
Knew It All, But Said Nothing.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 29.—The half a million dollars that Joseph S. Moore stole from the Mutual Life Insurance company was lost in speculation. The interest is centered as to how it was possible for him to continue his stealings from the company for nine years and get 10 per cent. of the entire surplus fund, before being discovered.

It has been developed that not only Moore, but men who were in his employ were, with his knowledge, doing a little stealing on their own account. When property owned by the company was repaired or improved, they would add 15 to 25 per cent. to the contractor's bill, which they would deduct from the payment, and in this way secured many thousands of dollars which it is impossible for the company to find any trace of now.

One of the contractors to whom such a proposition was made reported the matter to Moore but never received any response.

When Moore failed in 1878 for several hundred thousand dollars he was largely indebted to the company, but it is supposed that an arrangement was made by which he should pay the indebtedness in installments.

One man here procured a loan of $10,000 from the company, drew $7,000 of it and was told by Moore that the other $3,000 had not been sent. On writing to the company he found that Moore had the $10,000 from the beginning, and that he was holding back the $3,000.

Moore's bookkeeper has been aware of the condition of affairs for years, and others have had knowledge of the shortage. He left Saturday afternoon for his country residence at Tanglewood to escape being questioned by the reporters. It is regarded as strange that no attempt has been made to prosecute him.

UNABLE TO SECURE BONDSMEN.

Henry S. Ives and George A. Stayner Pass
Their Sunday in a Hotel.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Ives and Stayner,
the ex-Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton magnates, who were arrested Saturday,

have since then
been under guard at
the Sinclair house,
Eighth and Broadway. Their lawyers so far have failed to secure the $250,000 bail required for each. The charge against Ives
and his partner is
that they misappropriated $2,500,000 of Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton
money and stocks. Previous suits have covered only portions of Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton history. This time it was determined to embrace everything. Julius Dexter is here and has much to do with the prosecution. Mr. Ives says that the arrest is simply a continuation of the "persecution"
to which he has been subjected.

HENRY S. IVES.

Epidemic of Typhoid Fever.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Three hundred and eighty-five cases of typhoid fever are reported at Lake View and new cases developing every day. Dr. Sieber, the city physician and health commissioner, says there have been but eleven deaths from the disease reported since January 1, and that the disease is due entirely to the open winter; that it will rapidly disappear with cold weather,
and is already diminishing.

Miscreants Wreck a Train.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 29.—Some miscreants opened a switch near Mizab, three miles south of Reidsville on Saturday night and wrecked a northbound freight train. The train caught fire and was entirely destroyed. Fireman Adams and Brakeman Dee were killed in the wreck the fast passenger train which was about an hour behind the freight.

Married His Stepmother.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 29.—Peter and Barbara Hahn have been arrested for violating the state statute which prohibits a man marrying his stepmother. Peter's father died in April, 1885, and on his death bed requested that Peter marry his stepmother.
Peter did, and as a result the couple have now been arrested.

Another Wreck.

GALION, O., Jan. 29.—Jud Belton, engineer, took the new engine, No. 301, on the Nypano road Sunday on a trial trip. On the Burgner bridge he met the east-bound fast stock train. Both engines were smashed, and several head of cattle were killed. Five persons were injured—Jud Belton seriously.

Skipped With Her Sister's Diamonds.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Jack Burgess, the prize fighter, and his wife are supposed to be on their way to the Pacific slope with the proceeds of $4,000 worth of diamonds which Mrs. Burgess stole from her sister, Mrs.
Hewitt, of 207 East Forty-eighth street, in this city yesterday.

Plenty of Gas at Wapakoneta.

WAPAKONETA, O., Jan. 29.—The natural gas well, No. 4, which came in Saturday, is owned by the Wapakoneta Natural Gas company, and it is doing about eight millions cubic feet per day. The town wells will furnish Wapakoneta with 40,000,000 feet
of gas per day.

New York's Austrian Consul Dead.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Hugo Frisch, the Austrian consul here, whose health has been so as to cause his friends much anxiety for several weeks past died at his residence in this city Sunday afternoon of heart failure.

THE SOLID SOUTH.

General Longstreet Thinks It Will Soon
Be a Thing of the Past.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 29.—Gen. Longstreet is in this city. He goes to visit Mahone, at Petersburg, and from there to Washington to take part in the reception of Harrison. In reply to the question
whether he was a candidate for a cabinet position he said: "Whatever Harrison does you may be sure will be done for the best interests of all sections. He will know
no section whatever, but will be president of the United States."

GEN. LONGSTREET.

"Do you think that the Republican party will make any gains in the solid south?"
"I think," the general replied, "in four years the solid south will be numbered among the things that were."

the steamer Republic, in port at New York.

The reasons given for bringing a suit to break a will in Boston are that the testator crucified a pig, expecting its resurrection,
and fed sawdust to the chickens.

John Hill, an old Vallandigham Democrat, of Fletcher, O., died Sunday in Burlington, Kan. He once immortalized himself with the Democracy of his district by driving a team of forty-eight horses to a meeting at Piqua.

Peter and Barbara Hahn, of Newark, N.
J., have been arrested for violating the statute which prohibits a man marrying his stepmother. Peter's father died in April, 1885, and on his death-bed requested that Peter marry his stepmother. Peter did.

At a literary meeting at Summit school house, four miles west of Williamsburg, O., Saturday night, William Wacker, aged seventeen, was killed, and George W. Mount and Spurr Kidd were seriously injured by the bell of the school house falling upon them as they were standing in front of the school room door.

J. W. Bidgood, who was mysteriously assaulted several nights ago in a disreputable quarter in Kansas City, died Sunday night of his injuries. His family live in Trinidad, Col. Deceased was a mining engineer. It is supposed that he was killed on account of his intimacy with a woman who lived in the neighborhood.

BLOODSHED THREATENED

In Brooklyn Unless the Old Street Car
Men Are Taken Back.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The street car tie-up in Brooklyn is likely to result in trouble.
Three strikers are under arrest on the charge of murdering a new employee, and stones have been thrown at policemen.
The real leader of the strikers, who, however, is not their chairman, says not another attempt to arbitrate the matter will be made.

"But," he adds, "no car will be run on Richardson's roads until all these men are taken back. If he sends cars out to-day all the police in the city cannot prevent bloodshed. Furthermore, if the tie-up is not settled by to-night not a surface car wheel will turn in the city to-morrow morning."

"But you have just signed agreements with all other roads for 1889," was suggested.
"It makes no difference," rejoined the Knight of Labor; "our only protection is in tying up and then preventing new men taking our places. The agreement won't stand in our way."

New Man Found Dead.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 29.—Henry W. Adams, a stable man, was found dead Saturday night
on the sidewalk under an open second-story doorway of the street car company's stables.
Death was apparently caused by a fall from the doorway. It was learned, however, that the night watchman had admitted to the building three strikers, who said they wanted to talk to Adams and try to persuade him to strike. Those three men, Moses Stenson, John Callier and Herman Graham, were arrested on suspicion. They denied having used violence, but said that Adams had become frightened and had run to the doorway and either jumped or fell out. They will be held to await the result of an autopsy on Adams' body.

Trouble With Indians.

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 29.—There is a prospect of serious trouble with the Indians near Clouquet, who demand that the lumbermen be expelled from the reservation. A council of Fon-du-Lac Indians Saturday, called on the commissioner of Indians here demanding that immediate action be taken in the matter.

Postoffice Robbed.

RAHWAY, N. J., Jan. 29.—The postoffice
here was entered by burglars during Sunday night, who succeeded in blowing open the safe and abstracting $1,500. There is no clew to the thieves.

TUESDAY EVENING JAN. 29, 1889.

Our Advantages and Wants.

Maysville is one of the best and solidest cities in the State and does a heavy wholesale and retail business. She has thirteen tobacco and cigar factories, besides other important manufacturing concerns. Fuel comes to her doors cheaply, and it seems that with plenty of water and cheap fuel she ought to get some of the concerns now leaving Cincinnati and locating where expenses will be lighter. While the business men of Maysville are wealthy, they seem to be rather conservative, like the people of a good many other Kentucky towns. By pulling together, they may accomplish wonders. Maysville (then called Limestone) was the gate-way to this section in early times, and her natural advantages should put her to the front. If Lexington only had Maysville's cheap fuel and abundant water, she would make things hum.—Lexington Drummer.

Our contemporary "hits the nail on the head." "By pulling together," says the Drummer, "they (the business men) may accomplish wonders." Much can be done by united effort. The proposed manufacturing association offers one means of bringing the citizens together in working for the welfare of Maysville. It should be organized at once.

There is no question that Maysville offers advantages to industrial enterprises that other cities would like to possess. The Drummer sees this and admits it. Cheap fuel, cheap gas, a fine water system, a low rate of taxation and splendid transportation facilities are some of the inducements we can hold out to those seeking locations for factories of any kind.

The time has come for our citizens to arouse themselves. In the future let our attention be paid more to manufacturing than to merchandizing.

A Gratifying Sign of Progress.

"One of the most gratifying signs of the general progress of the South," says the Baltimore Manufacturers' Record, "is the new life and energy which the old towns and cities of that section are displaying. These older places have seen what marvels have been accomplished in Birmingham, Anniston, Roanoke, Chattanooga and other points by enterprise and push, and they have grown envious of their prosperity. It hurts their pride to see themselves being so badly left in the race, and gradually one after another is waking up. It is a very healthy sign and promises well for great progress."

Maysville should try and keep step with the procession. There is plenty of room for improvement here, and the present year should see many industries added to those we now have. However, it all depends on those who have the means to engage in manufacturing enterprises.

Senator Beck's Health.

A special from Washington City says Senator Beck has so far recovered his health that he will probably attend the Senate toward the close of the session, but a physician who knows him well, says that he will scarcely be able to attend to any of his official duties for a long time to come. The precise character of his ailment is no longer a mystery, and it will require months of rest and recuperation to put the stalwart Scotchman in condition to do any business at all.

Rumors to the effect that Mr. Beck would resign and that Mr. Carlisle was solid for his seat, are certainly unfounded, adds the special. Mr. Beck's friends hope for his certain and speedy recovery, and they think, with his colleagues in the Senate, that Mr. Beck's long and arduous services entitle him to as long a rest as may be required to effect that result.

There are four candidates for Mayor at Paris—all Democrats.

STATE TREASURER SHARP has announced his candidacy for re-election. The election will be held next August, and Mr. Sharpe talks like he intends to be his own successor or give some one a hard tussle over the contest.

The Republicans have had the upper hand in Ohio for three years now, and the State Auditor recently informed Governor Foraker and the Legislature that the estimated expenses this year exceeded the estimated receipts by $594,250.50! These figures "convey their own moral," says the Circleville Democrat.

Dress and Fashion.

[New York World.]

Toques are much worn, so are the low Spanish turbans.

Large hats continue to be much worn by young people.

White and dull red are favorite colors for evening wraps this season.

There is a disposition to bind felt hats and bonnets with cloth instead of with velvet and galloon.

A novelty in ink stands is a bottle of rock crystal in fluted pattern, each alternate flute being of silver.

Round and oblong brooches are in great demand, and the same may be said of those showing irregular outlines and simulating objects in nature, such as birds, flies and flowers.

MR. SHARP'S CANDIDACY.

The State Treasurer Says He Will Strive to be His Own Successor.

A special from Frankfort says State Treasurer Steve G. Sharp, in reply to the question whether he intended to be a candidate for the office of Treasurer next term replied:

"I know there has been an impression over the State, judging from the tone of a number of newspapers I have seen, that I would not be a candidate for the office. I can't imagine how any one obtained such an impression; certainly not from me. Why, if you remember, I gave up the County Judgeship of Fayette County—an office of about equal pay and term that would not expire until 1890—to accept the appointment from Governor Buckner in the hope that the Democratic party would at least nominate me without opposition for the term. You see, the term is only two years and the bond enormous, and when the time of my acceptance of the office is considered I think it will be admitted that I was justified in confiding in the fairness and good sense of my party to make me its nominee. Knowing full well, then, that I have been faithful in the performance of the duties, I shall ask the Democracy for an endorsement, and promise in the event of my nomination to make as earnest and active a canvass as the business of my office will admit."

Falmouth's Liquor Traffic.

Mr. Bob McDonald sells to the Falmouth bar-rooms sixty barrels of whisky and to the "jug trade" 100 barrels a year; Mr. Duckert, of Butler, sells to the saloons here fifty barrels more, making a grand total of 210 barrels a year. Mr. Cowles sells several, also, and others come here from other places; but to be reasonable we will place the whole number sold here every year at 225 barrels; then there are 3,650 kegs of beer sold here annually. Now, let's see how much money is spent for it. There are about eighty drinks in a gallon of whisky, consequently at ten cents a drink, counting forty gallons to the barrel (and they all go over), the bar-rooms sell annually $39,600 worth of whisky, and $18,250 worth of beer, and the distilleries to the jug trade the sum of $8,000, making in all the enormous amount of $65,250, to say nothing about the wines and brandies.—Guide.

Religious Miscellany.

Congregationalists are raising a $500,000 jubilee fund.

English Methodists owe $4,000,000, and are arranging to pay it.

Father Bouchet, Vicar General of Louisville, has been a priest for thirty-eight years.

The Christian denomination gave $7,997.19 to sustain thirty-one laborers in foreign lands last year.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Boston, has been offered $750,000 for its church building and lot, but it asks $1,000,000.

The members of the new religious sect, "Brotherhood of the Sons of God," abstain from tobacco, flesh and intoxicants. Their symbol is 333, their badge a gold, green and purple ribbon, and their missionary language Volapuk.

Bringing Gladness

To millions, pleasing their palates and cleansing their systems, arousing their livers, kidneys, stomachs and bowels to a healthy activity. Such is the mission of the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. For sale in 50 cents and $1 bottles.

Americans and Money.

The American is constantly accused by Europeans of worshipping the "almighty dollar," and great was my curiosity to judge for myself of the justice of this charge. After calm observation of the ways of men in America, I came to the conclusion that the dollar was certainly not only the unit of the monetary system, but that it was also the unit of the metrical system. However, I soon saw that, if the dollar was coveted and held in great respect, it was not so much for itself as for the luxury it was the key to; in other words, that avarice was a vice almost unknown in the land. There is a lavishness in the American's way of expending his money that redeems his trick of taking off his hat to it whenever he sees it.—Max O'Rell

Photographing the Sky.

Professor William H. Pickering has succeeded in detecting a number of new nebulae by means of photography. The region surrounding the nebula of Orion was selected for these experiments, and from the results the author concludes that, by photographing the entire sky, four or five thousand such objects may be discovered. Only in case the large nebula of Orion should prove to embrace all the new nebulae in its limits, this proportion would not hold good. The experiments show, however, that the method is well adapted to verifying and completing our catalogues of stars.—Science.

Don't Like the Plan.

The Medico-Legal society has now made its report as to the method that should be adopted for electric execution, and the would be murderer can now acquaint himself as to the details of the manner in which he will be disposed of if he should receive a sentence of capital punishment. We must frankly admit that the plan does not commend itself to our notions of decency or propriety. An electrical execution will, perhaps, be less sloppy than one by guillotine or by blowing from guns, but it will not be less ghastly in its attendant circumstances.

THE LEE FAMILY.

The Oldest in the United States—Interesting Talk from Henry Hume Long.

[Kansas City Times.]

The oldest, perhaps, and most distinguished family in the United States is that of Lee, of Virginia. The pedigree of the family is deduced from Launcelot Lee, of London, in France, who migrated to England at the time of the Norman conquest, and was rewarded for his valor at the battle of Hastings by a grant of land in Essex.

Lionel Lee, the next member of the family of whom mention is made, flourished in the time of Richard I. He seems to have been bitten by the then fashionable craze for crusading, for in 1192 he is found raising a company of gentlemen, and marching at their head to the holy land; and the armor which he wore at the siege of Saint Jean d'Acre may be seen to this day in the horse armory in the tower of London. On his return to England he was created Earl of Litchfield, and received a grant of the manor of Ditchley, after which the Lees called their estate in Virginia.

Richard Lee accompanied the Earl of Surrey in his expedition across the Scottish border in 1542, and his descendant, Henry Lee, of Ditchley, was installed a Knight of the Garter in the reign of Elizabeth, being the second family to receive that honor.

Richard Lee (1), seventh son of Sir Robert Lee of Hulleott, and younger brother of Sir Henry Lee of Ditchley, above-mentioned, emigrated to America with a numerous household in the reign of Charles I, and settled in the country lying between the Rappahannock and Potomac rivers. He was an ardent royalist, and during the protectorate of Cromwell was mainly instrumental in inducing the colony of Virginia to assume a semi-independent attitude. His son, Richard Lee (2), was also a prominent man in the colony. On his tombstone in Westmoreland County is a Latin inscription as follows:

"Here lieth the body of Richard Lee, born in Virginia, son of Richard Lee, gentleman, descended of an old family of Merton-Regis, in Shropshire.

"While he exercised the office of a magistrate, he was a zealous promoter of the public good.

"He was well versed in Greek and Latin literature and other branches of polite learning.

"To God, whom he always adored with the greatest reverence, he tranquilly resigned his soul on the 12th day of March, 1714, in the sixty-eight of his age."

He left five sons, of whom the eldest, Richard (3), was father of George Lee (4), who married the widow of Lawrence Washington, and was father of Henry, better known as "Light Horse Harry" Lee (5), who was born in Virginia, January 29, 1756, and died at Cumberland Island, Georgia, March 26, 1818. He married first his second cousin, Matilda, eldest daughter of Philip Ludwell Lee, (eldest son of Thomas Lee, President of the Colonial Council and great-grandson of Richard Lee, the first of the family who settled in Virginia), and secondly in 1793, Anna, daughter of Charles Carter, by whom he had besides other issue:

Robert Edward Lee (6), "The Great Captain," born at Stratford, Va., January 19, 1807, and died October 12, 1870, having married in 1832, Mary, daughter of George Washington Curtis, and adopted granddaughter and heiress of George Washington, with whom he acquired the Arlington estate and the well-known White House on the Pamunkey. He left five sons and three daughters.

Stratford, the old homestead of the Lees, on the left bank of the Potomac, was originally erected by Richard Lee, the first of the name who settled in Virginia. It was completely destroyed by fire about the beginning of the last century, but subsequently rebuilt in much the same style, the bricks, wainscoting and furniture being brought over from England. If the English law of primogeniture, which secures the landed estate to the eldest son, prevailed in the United States, the Lees might still be seated at Stratford, which has passed into other hands. The permanence of English society is attributable mainly to this national law of primogeniture. In corroboration of this statement, I may observe that there is a small estate on the border of the New Forest which originally belonged to Purkis, the lime-burner, who picked up the body of William Rufus and carried the royal corpse in his humble cart to Winchester, and which has descended through an unbroken male line of ancestry to a worthy yeoman of the same name, now resident on the same farm near Stoney Cross, on the Ringwood road, some eight miles from Romsey.

Arms of Lee—A shield band, sinister batted and embattled.

Crest—A closed visor, surmounted by a squirrel holding a nut.

Motto—Non incautus futuri.

HENRY HUME LONG, B. P. A.

SLOW BUT SURE

The Move in Interest of the Manufacturing Association—New Soliciting Committees.

The interest in the proposed manufacturing association has not abated.

The meeting at the council chamber last evening was well attended, all things considered. About forty or fifty of those who have the cause most at heart were on hand to hear the report of the soliciting committees who had been at work the past week.

The report of the committees showed that 283 shares of stock had been subscribed for.

The report was not as encouraging, perhaps, as some expected, but after a free discussion of the matter it was decided to continue the work. Confidence was expressed that the requisite amount of stock could be secured by determined effort.

The following new soliciting committees were appointed, to work on the days named:

Tuesday, January 29—W. H. Cox, W. L. Thomas.

Wednesday, January 30—F. S. Owens, E. H. Martin.

Thursday, January 31—A. M. J. Cochran, W. B. Mathews.

Friday, February 1—George T. Wood, John I. Salisbury.

Saturday, February 2—Thomas A. Keith, W. W. Ball.

Sunday, February 3—J. F. Barbour, W. C. Miner.

Tuesday, February 5—W. C. Russell, C. C. Hopper.

Wednesday, February 6—Lee Browning, J. W. Fitzgerald.

Thursday, February 7—Thomas A. Davis, C. C. Calhoun.

Friday, February 8—P. P. Parker, James H. Rogers.

A public meeting in the interest of the move will be held at Amazon Hall, Fifth ward, to-morrow, (Wednesday) evening at 7 o'clock. A committee consisting of Messrs. Geo. Crowell, J. I. Salisbury, W. B. Mathews, G. T. Wood and W. W. Ball, will be present to explain the objects of the association and give any other information.

On next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock a public meeting will be held in Chester in the interest of the cause. The committee appointed to attend this meeting and give any information desired consists of Messrs. W. W. Ball, H. H. Collins, Thomas A. Davis, A. M. J. Cochran, W. LaRue Thomas and J. James Wood.

Everybody is invited to attend these meetings. Those interested in the future welfare of the city are specially urged to be present.

A Big Turnout.

The notice that there would be work in the Royal Purple degree at Pisgah Encampment No. 9, I. O. O. F. last night brought the Patriarchs out in large numbers. Handsome delegations were present from Aberdeen, Manchester and Flemingsburg and Patriarch James W. Johnson came in from Lexington.

Messrs. C. L. Sallee and L. W. Galbraith were duly initiated in the mysteries of the Patriarchal, Golden Rule and Royal Purple degrees, the exemplification of the work being about the best ever witnessed here. Patriarch Johnson, of Lexington, was highly complimented on the part he took in the first degree.

The work was finished at midnight, when all adjourned to the European Hotel where a bountiful spread was served to the Patriarchs and "weary pilgrims."

Lunch and Supper.

The Little Helper's Society of the Baptist Church will give a lunch and supper in the McGranaghan building, corner Third and Market streets, on Friday afternoon and evening, February 1st. The children have undertaken to finish the pulpit of the new church, and the proceeds of the supper will be devoted to that object. Refreshments of all kinds, including oysters, will be served at reasonable rates. Special inducements to families taking supper. Go and encourage the little ones. They have not appealed to the public often.

Flour, Meal and Hominy.

We belong to no millers' association or trust. Therefore, we can make prices to suit the times. Our "Magnolia Patent," "Blue Grass Fancy," and "Kentucky Belle Family," brands of flour, full roller process, are guaranteed to be equal to any made in Maysville. Try a barrel and be convinced. Will sack flour in any size sack you wish. Highest market price paid for corn. Meal and hominy ground or exchanged. Your patronage solicited. Respectfully, CARR & TOLLE, Proprietors Magnolia Mills, Fourth St., Maysville. d5&w1

Personal.

Dr. A. C. Cook and wife arrived at Millersburg Saturday from their bridal trip to Philadelphia.

Mr. J. A. Perry, of the Manchester Signal, accompanied by his wife, returned home this afternoon after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tolle, of the Fifth ward.

ANNUAL CROP REPORT.

A Larger Product of Cereals Than Ever Before.

A special from Washington City says the annual crop report of the Department of Agriculture shows that there is a larger aggregate product of cereals than has ever before been recorded. It will amount to about 3,200,000,000 bushels, or fully fifty bushels per head. This is about three times the average supply per capita of Europe from home production, and receipts from other continents amount to only about one bushel per head.

The aggregate potato production is 200,000,000 bushels; the sweet potato crop about 40,000,000 bushels. The production of cane sugar is small; sorghum a medium crop. Owing to the abundance of moisture and the moderate temperature of spring, the hay crop was very large. The cotton crop is of medium yield with increased acreage.

Fruits have been fairly abundant, though variable in production locally. It is the "even year" and apples are plenty for domestic use, while the cheapness has favored exportation.

The wool clip of 1888 was slightly reduced in consequence of the reduction of flocks in Texas and elsewhere. The estimated product of 269,000,000 pounds. The meat supply has been very abundant.

The area of maize, as estimated for the crop of 1888, makes an increase of 3,280,043 over the crop of 1887, and 13,304,250 acres over the census crop of 1879, indicating a gain of 21 per cent. in nine years. The estimates of wheat area make a reduction of 305,645 acres from the breadth of 1887. The aggregate is 37,338,138, an increase of only 1,905,805 on the area of 1879, or a little more than 5 per cent.

The exports will probably be less than those of 1879, 80 by at least 100,000,000 bushels; a quantity more than ample for the annual supply of all the increase of population since 1880.

There appears to be a further increase of the area of oats amounting to 1,077,376 acres, and about 41,000,000 increase in the quantity produced. The yield per acre is twenty-six bushels, against twenty-five and a fourteenth bushels in 1887.

A SLICK RASCAL.

Swindling Colored People out of Their Hard-earned Cash.

A slick rascal has been working among the colored people in the eastern part of this county and western part of Lewis of late, and has succeeded in gulping them out of considerable sums of money.

He is a mulatto and goes by the name of Jackson.

Within the past week or two about thirty of his victims have called at the County Clerk's office in this city looking for him.

From them it is learned that the rascal had informed them that the Government had granted them a pension. All they had to do to get the money was to come to the County Clerk's office here where the proper vouchers would be fixed up and forwarded to Washington City, and the cash would be forthcoming. The swindler told his story into willing ears, and the ignorant people were easily gulped into paying the rascal a fee of $5 or $10 in each case, which the rascal stated had been allowed him as his fee. His office, he said, was at the County Clerk's office, and he would be on hand to attend to fixing up their vouchers. Of course, he was safely out of the way before the day fixed for them to appear.

Mrs. John C. Lovel and daughter have returned from Vanceburg.

BUD HARRIS and two other colored youths are in custody at Lexington on charge of throwing rocks at Kentucky Central passenger trains. The windows of several coaches have lately been broken as the trains were passing along the streets at that place. Harris confessed, saying he wanted to get even with one of the fireman.

REV. W. S. PRIEST preached the closing sermon of his pastorate at the Christian Church Sunday night, and will leave this week to take charge of the Fourth street Christian Church of Covington. He has been a faithful and zealous worker in the Master's cause while at this place, and he and Mrs. Priest will have with them in their new home the prayers and hearty good wishes of the many friends they have won here in Maysville.
